Her Majesty, Queen Elizabeth II, and His Royal Highness, The Prince Philip, Duke of Edinburgh, toast the President of the United States at a luncheon sponsored by The Pilgrims of The United States and The English Speaking Union of the United States, on July 9, 1976, at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel in New York City. The only wine served at this bicentennial event honoring the Royal couple's visit to this country, was Callaway's estate bottled 1974 White Riesling produced by Callaway Vineyard and Winery, Temecula, California. This is the first time in U.S. viticultural history that a dry table wine from Southern California was chosen to be served on the east coast at an international diplomatic event.
